

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOL. I.

PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1883.

No. 102.

Will the floods never let up?
Mr. STERLING has a case of small-pox.
STOKES threatened to boom again yesterday.
Hinkston threatened us again a little yesterday.
Jowl and greens are scented in the near sweet future.
THIEVES garnered a rich harvest during the flood in Cincinnati.
WREN Higgins prophesied a storm, he must have meant a flood.

Horse and jack bills neatly and cheaply executed at this office.
PARIS has another rag and iron house, in the Cigler property, on Pleasant street.
FIFTY soiled doves got flooded out of house and home at Frankfort.
The Kentucky river was the highest during the flood than ever known.

The damage on the O & O. road by the flood, will require several days for repairs.
The Kentucky Central has stood the floods better than any other railroad in the State.

Mrs. Robert W. McClelland and Mrs. Rev. D. B. Presley are both ill with pneumonia.
This water is waist deep in Jeffersonville, and Madisonville, Indiana, is wholly submerged.

In Louisville fifty-five squares are covered by water, on which are six of the principal churches.
Geo. HICKS and Cesar were sent up for two three years each for stealing in the Fayette Circuit Court.

E. H. TAYLOR & Co., of Frankfort, lost 600 barrels of whiskey and 1,800 bushels of mash, by the flood Tuesday.
BURGLARS stole $300 from the residence of Harry Maddox, at Poplar Grove, Owen county, a few nights ago.

WILLIS ROGERS, father of Capt. Sam. Rogers, of Carlisle, died in Sharpsburg, last week at the age of 84 years.
It is understood the Lexington churches will require the deacons to use bell punches when taking up collections.

The railroad bridge over the Kentucky river at Frankfort had to be weighted down with flat cars loaded with stone.
Among the queer sights seen floating down the river at Louisville, was a barrel on which three geese were perched.

The depot of the Cincinnati Southern railroad floated away Tuesday. It was on a sand bank on the edge of a great lake.
JOHN GASS was the successful applicant for the $1,000 loan made by the Building and Loan Association, Tuesday night.

About the best thing that could be done with Neal and Craft would be to put them in a tub and set them afloat in the Ohio River.
The Kentucky river swept thirteen out of eighteen houses away from the village of Brooklyn, and three from the vicinity of High Bridge.

This sight of a rainbow with a sack of gold at one end and a sack of silver at the other, would be an encouraging sight just now.
LIGHTNING ought to strike all the legal talent employed in the Neal and Craft cases. Nearly two weeks have passed now and no trial yet.

The Louisville and Lexington railroad road has been under water for the distance of eight miles, from Frankfort South, during the flood.
JOHN B. DRAPER, proprietor of the Grand Pacific Hotel, Chicago, has generously contributed $100 to the sufferers by the floods in Louisville.

BEN WHITE, a fifteen-year-old colored boy, was sentenced to the term of two years in the penitentiary by the Garrard Circuit Court for house-breaking.
Tus "Old Reliable" K. C. road sent out quite a delegation of excursionists from here this morning on half fare tickets, to Covington, to view the flood.

The Henningry Glass-works at Covington were damaged $2,500 worth on the same day, and this, too, in the face of a world of water almost surrounding the city.
The Democratic Committee of Nicholas county met last Monday and received the resignation of J. F. Norvell, as Chairman. Mr. Sol. Robertson was chosen to fill the vacancy.

This flood appears to be over.
JOHN NEASBIT has moved Henry Paton's store room.
OSBORN EDWARDS has succeeded the lively firm of Clark & Edwards.
The new nickle has already been counterfeited as a five dollar gold piece.
We gladly greet the dove and olive branch on this beautiful Spring morning.

Geo. BECKFORD lost 400 shocks of fodder and a large lot of walnut logs by the flood.
Geo. McDONALD, of Flemingsburg, has taken charge of the St. Cloud Hotel, at Carlisle.
AVENT, the great Louisville plow manufacturer, began life as a poor blacksmith in Winchester.

COL. COOPER, the temperance lecturer, has been on a protracted drunk at Carlisle for several days.
On Monday, in Mayville, the steamboats loaded passengers at the door of the Central Hotel.

WALKER THOMSON, an aged citizen of Harrison county, was adjudged a lunatic in Cynthiana Wednesday.
A Post-office called "Sister," has been established in Floyd county. The mails will be all she-mails at that office.

PARIS has a colored hook and ladder company. They put the ladders up in the trees and hook all the chickens of the roost.
The damage, at Lawrenceburg, Ind., caused by the high water, will reach $300,000. Nearly the entire town is under water.

GEO. HAZEN's prediction that the winter would be mild has proved of great value to Kentucky. The hens have been laying industriously.
A JURY was secured in Craft's case at Grayson, Thursday, and the court adjourned until this morning. Neal's case has been continued until next Monday.

A drunken man, on meeting a train coming over the Southern bridge at Cincinnati, jumped into the raging Ohio, and after floating around for half an hour, was rescued.
Out on Mr. Jason Walkers farm, near town, two negroes, brothers, began to fight in front of their mother's cabin door, when she dropped dead. [Richmond Herald.]

CHARLIE WOODS, of this precinct, while trying the beautiful experiment of pulling a leaden musket out of a wagon, muzzle-foremost, now has three less fingers to pull trigger with in the future.
GEORGE MALDEN, of Lexington, who shot Albert Lowenstein a few nights ago in Cincinnati for robbing him of a diamond worth $500, has given himself up, and is now out on a $1,000 bail bond.

The Chief of Police of Frankfort has issued an order for all thieves caught depriving on the flood sufferers to be shot and dumped into the river. He says, "do this, and I'll be with you."
This Chesapeake and Ohio railway, having repaired the damage caused by the floods, has resumed running its through trains for Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

Twenty years ago Wednesday, Mrs. J. L. Robbins, of Flat Rock, presented her husband with a pair of valentines weighing 9 and 10 pounds each. They are alive today, and kick the beam at 179 and 180 pounds each.

The Chesapeake & O. R. R. Co. has decided to build a double track at a cost of $100,000. Work has already been commenced at three different points on the Eastern Division, and at four points on the West Virginia Division. It will require about two years to complete it.

Howorth's Hibernica.
At the School of Arts last night, there was—or there is every night—a fall house to witness the Grand Hibernica and Comedy Company.—[Sidney, Australia, Evening News.]

The Hibernica, which came to us endorsed by the Canadian press, meets every expectation and is fully up to the standard of excellence represented.—[Irish Canadian, Toronto.]

The scenery of the Old Land is admirably represented.—[Phila. Catholic Standard.]

Howorth's Grand Hibernica, which has exhibited in our city the past two evenings, has drawn the largest houses of the season, and better satisfied audiences than were present on these occasions have seldom left the Academy of Music. We have no hesitation in saying it is the best show of the kind, both in talent of the company and quality of scenery, that has ever visited Scranton.—[Scranton Republican, Feb. 19, 1879.]

SOCIETY SCINTILLATIONS.

A Georgia man broke his back with a sneeze.
Ignorance and selfishness are twin brothers.
Freddie and Lillie are in Cincinnati this week.
Bismarck once smoked twelve hours on a stretch.
Three of the new Senators are worth $20,000,000.

Iowa has her first colored lawyer, a young man from Chicago.
Injustices never can cure any evil greater than the evils it will produce.
She who can compose a cross baby is greater than she who composes books.

The people of the United States spend $300,000 a year for dolls for its little girls.
"A coffin," said the Irishman, "is a place where a man lives when he is dead."
At twenty years of age the wit reigns, at thirty the wit, and at forty the judgment.

It costs just four dollars to swear four times in the lobby of the Newport post-office.
Flowers for the hair are worn just above the right ear and are arranged in sprays.
A stage innovation.—Modjeska having her own husband accompany her on her travels.

The boys in Cincinnati are singing: "Where Was Moses When the Light Went Out."
In reading the puffs on gravestones, we can only hope that the dead are not spoiled by gross flattery.
A Dead mate has been arrested in New York for stealing two shirts. He will now have a hearing.

The Cincinnati theaters have been using the electric light since the gas works have been submerged.
Forrest Robertson has returned from college at Baltimore, and will make his home in this city in future.
Dr. Tanner is so much opposed to catting meat, he says that cold gravy contains the germs of total depravity.

Cincinnati has gone back to first principles and are burning candles and lamps until the high waters subside.
Mrs. Kenney, Howard, Brooks, James Gass and Nathan Bayless have all been down to Covington to see the great flood.
Many of the cannons that were used during the war are now standing muzzle down as posts for national cemetery fences.

The whole universe of nature is a library, but a great many of the books are written in a language that no one has yet mastered.
Every man is occasionally, what he ought to be perpetually. Then, again, some are perpetually what they ought to be only occasionally.

Girls in the postal service of England only get $2.50 per week, and many refuse to marry, on the grounds that they cannot support husbands.
The difference between a cat and a comma is that one has claws at the end of the paws, and the other has the pause at the end of the clause.

A Minnesota farmer advertised that if the man who run off with his wife, two children and 500 head of cattle would return the young ones, he might keep the money and wife.
A Minnesota family was snowed in, and they lived for thirteen days on a pair of old boots. There's nothing like getting something "to boot" in life's little transactions.

An Indiana wag who was going to hang, had too much good sense and refinement to bore an audience from the gallows. He simply smiled as he bowed, and said "I'll see you later," and the trap fell.

Mrs. Langtry likes Louisville better than any city she has visited in the United States. The reason, perhaps, is that the boys think that the time has arrived for them all to stand by each other.

A woman not more than four feet high was recently married to a man six feet three inches in height, in Illinois. She certainly could not have fallen in love with him. She must have climbed up into his affections.

All the talk about counts and barons serving as waiters in beer saloons is absurd. So long as a waiter attends to his work properly, and does not marry the proprietor's daughter, no one cares how many titles he may have.

Two Democrats secured the passage of an amendment in the House, yesterday, reducing the revenue districts from 120 to eighty-two.

MILLERSBURG.

[These items will appear in the Kentuckian, without credit.] The News is published every Tuesday and Friday, preceding the publication of the Kentuckian and is always filled with fresh and lively local and spicy, original editorials.]

Remember Mrs. Purnell's sale to-morrow.
"Aunt" Betsy Miller is quite ill with dropsy.
Sanford Carpenter has returned from Georgia.
Hinkston has got back into her petticoats again.

Judge Wadell went down to Cincinnati and saw the big flood.
Marshall Cargyle is acting barber in the absence of Joe Carter.
Hansel Sharp's mother is quite ill, at her home near Headquarters.

W. R. Long and family of Midway, are the guests of Mrs. Belle Taylor.
Sam James, Sr., has returned to his duties as assistant Jailor at Paris.
An infant child of the Rev. D. B. Presley and wife, was buried Tuesday.

Miss Frankie Morrison, of Mayville, is the guest of the Misses Fleming.
The new proprietors of the Purnell House took possession yesterday.
The colored hook and ladder company has stolen all of the chickens in town lately.

The dogs have taken complete possession of town, and the nights are made hideous.
Harry Conway and a young man named Turner, exchanged political opinions at the depot Tuesday.
Abel Brown, formerly a citizen of this town, died Sunday at the residence of his son, Prof. Jas. Brown, in Cynthiana.

Billy Wood and family have taken refuge from the flood in our town, after making a narrow escape of their lives at Paris' Ferry.
The rather unusual word of "Commet" is now coming into popular use again. No family will be without it now until the first of July.

The untimely death of little Jimmie Boden was a sad occurrence. Several months ago he jumped off the high wall of the pavement, which severely injured his spine, from which injury he never recovered. Prior to his injury he was as bright, strong and healthy child as lived in the precinct.

Andrew T. Adams, Louisville says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters for dyspepsia and exhaustion and am completely restored."
The Trader, Turfman, Farmer and Sportsman.

Remember Capt. Moore's sale at Shaw-han next Wednesday.
Over 300 hundred head of cattle were drowned at one distillery in Cincinnati, this week.

Sixty sheep, belonging to Erice McDonald, near Danville, Ky., were killed by dogs Saturday night.
Law Taylor of Midway, formerly of this county, has sold 20,000 pounds of tobacco at $11 for top and $4 and $5 for bottom.

Pure White Darley tobacco seed, warranted the purest and best, from Clermont county, Ohio, for sale at this office, at 50 cents per ounce.

A cock fight between New York and Philadelphia birds took place last week. The New York Morning Journal says it "was attended by a very select crowd."

FOR SALE: A pair of bay mare mules 15 hands 3 inches high, and a pair of bay harness horses 15 hands and 3 inches high. Call on or address Charlie Clarke, Millersburg, Ky.

Overly & Thomas have bought 45,000 pounds of tobacco this week. Am. H. Bedford, at 9 and 4, 4,000 lbs from J. K. Snell, at 7; 1,200 lbs from Newman & Lucas, near Leesburg, at 12 1/2 for 1,000 lbs of the worst is thrown out.

MULES FOR SALE.
I have twenty-one extra yearling mules (all mares but two) for sale. Call on or address J. W. McLELLAND, no 102-4, Millersburg, Ky.

W. H. H. JOHNSON, D. D. CONWAY, Prop'r.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce Chas. Offutt as a candidate for re-election to represent Bourbon county in the next House of Representatives, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

THERE is some talk of a duel about the Blackburn-Castleman imbroglio.

SEVENTEEN families lost their homes by fire at Mahoney City, Pa., Tuesday. Loss $18,000.

THOUSANDS of families are homeless and suffering in Cincinnati, Newport, Dayton and Bellevue.

THE Indiana Legislature will vote $40,000 for the relief of the sufferers by the floods in that State.

THE Ohio river now rivals the great "Blue Danube" when she had her Sunday clothes on a few weeks ago.

A GALLATIN, Mo., special says the arrangement of Frank James has been postponed to the 19th inst.

THE excitement about hotel fires has subsided. People are trying to keep out of the way of the water.

THE good old green hill sides of Kentucky ought now to command a premium over the grassy lakes of the West.

If it should suddenly freeze up right tight now a man could skate all over the States Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

THE City Council of Cincinnati contributed $100,000 to the suffering citizens of that city made homeless by the flood.

THE Arlington property will be purchased by the Government, the Lee heirs to receive $150,000 for it; with a release for back taxes.

A TENNESSEE boy was caught in the act of stealing $15 from his father, who rebuked his offspring: "Ah, my son we can't all be Polks."

THERE came near being war at Grayson the other night. As Lieutenant Meeks went the "grand rounds" some fellow threw two rocks at him.

TWENTY dollar gold pieces, to the amount of $960, were found in an apple tree which Simon Shrimplin of Millersburg, Ohio, cut down. The wood had entirely grown over the gold.

GOV. IRELAND, of Texas, has revoked the proclamation issued by Gov. Roberts, offering a reward of $20 for the apprehension of each drummer found selling goods without license.

PRESIDENTIAL mud-slinging will soon be in order. It will not be long before it will be stated positively that Governor Cleveland sleeps in a long-tailed night-gown, with ruffles all around the horizon.

THE old Connecticut blue laws permitted only preachers to cross rivers on Sunday. If such laws were in force to-day, it is quite probable that even preachers would not be very anxious to cross rivers.

A PROMINENT democrat tells the Louisville Commercial that he has figured the relative strength of the gubernatorial candidates with great care, and finds that Knott will go into the convention with 268 votes. Owsley with 245 and Jones with 226.

Now while the water is knee deep all over the States of Indiana and Illinois, we unappreciating citizens who are resting so securely and comfortably on the velvet-swarded hills of old Kentucky, ought to realize the fact that we are truly dwelling in the best country on earth.

WHEN a scissors grinder struck Lexington the other day, he was kept busy for two hours sharpening editorial scissors. Verily, that would be a good place for a resident grinder.

It takes fourteen millions of dollars a year to feed the canary birds in the United States, while thousands and thousands of little children suffer for the necessities of life. Yet we are a "Christian people."

THE Whisky Bill fared badly in the House Wednesday night, the Republicans jeering it and its friends as if they were at a ward meeting. There seems scarcely a possibility that the bill will be favorably considered.

ANOTHER murder from religious insanity is reported. This time in Milwaukee. If this sort of thing continues, the white child, when it perceives either of its parents reading the bible, will rush off to the neighbors for assistance.

PROF. GILLIAM has found that the negro increase is at the rate of thirty-five and the whites at twenty-five per cent every ten years. At this rate they will outnumber the whites two centuries from now and the bottom rail be most emphatically on top.

As thousands of our Kentucky citizens are now homeless and in a suffering condition in Louisville and Newport, would it not be a good time for the favored ones on the blugrass hills of Bourbon to send a few car loads of provisions to the distressed? Who'll start the ball in motion?

BAYNES, a Pennsylvania Republican, voted no with the Democrats in committee room upon the question of reporting favorably the bill to place Gen. Grant on the retired list, with the rank of General. When the Republicans recovered from their surprise they attempted to apply the party lash, but Mr. Baynes wouldn't have it.

A RUSSIAN nobleman is driving a smallpox wagon in Chicago; a titled Englishman is chambermaid in a Laramie livery stable, and a French count is working on the Rock Creek Section. Instances like these show what indomitable America offers to science; the nobility. None of them need hesitate to come over from fear of not finding honorable employment suited to their capacity.

THE Ohio river will feel sorry for all this when it gets sober. A few days ago it started out from Pittsburg on a grand old high. At Maysville it kicked over several hundred barrels of whiskey, took a drink of Limestone, and at Covington got a big Licking, while over in Cincinnati it rollicked around in a thousand bar rooms and wine cellars and rolled in the gutters, while at Louisville it was so full that it got a big Fall. Oh, thou wicked old river!

CAPT. HAVENS, of the Mt. Sterling Sentinel, appears to be publishing a paper in an illiterate, grumbling and nonpaying country, and apparently has his Irish up a little. Here's what he says: "We want no man or woman to take this paper by constraint. If any one is receiving the paper that does not want it, please say 'stop it.' No reason is required. If you have paid for the paper and do not think you are getting the worth of your money call on or write to us and we will refund the money for the unexpired time."

The loss by the great overflow is immeasurable. The destruction of property has been enormous, and this is only one feature of the dire disaster. The injury to buildings and merchandise in the submerged districts can not be estimated, but will no doubt aggregate a very large amount. The practical suspension of business throughout a large portion of Cincinnati and in surrounding cities, involves an incalculable loss. It is doubtful if the recent flood in Germany approached the great Ohio Valley inundation in importance as a calamity to property and mercantile interests.

SAM A. JAMES.

ATTENTION, HORSEMEN!

We call the attention of the farmer and breeder of horses who have lived at my place, horses for beauty and symmetry as well as for trotting purposes. If a careful inspection is made to the ears and crouping of any horse, I would then most respectfully call attention to Galban and his offspring—some ten or twelve of which can now be seen at my stable. Galban will be permitted to serve a limited number of mares the coming season, selected by first-class men, (two others need apply,) at $25 to insure.

Galban has a record of 2:34, and in the opinion of such horsemen as Dr. L. Herr he could have trotted as well or better than 2:30 on the day which he has record. Two of Galban's yearling colts showed better than a four minute gait on my independent track last spring.

I will call the attention to the fact that Mambrino Chief, with the Pilot and Clay cross, has produced some of our most noted horses. I breed for speed as well as sixteen-lands high horses, high style and rangy.

Galban is the sire of Cyclone and Coaster, both with records better than 2:27.

COL. L. T. FOSTER.

YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO, MAY 10TH, 1880.
B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—I had a very valuable Hambletonian colt which I prized very highly. He had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other, which made him very lame; I had him under the charge of two veterinary surgeons who failed to cure him. I was one day reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express, I determined at once to try it, and got our druggists here to send for it; they ordered three boxes, I took them all and thought I would give it a thorough trial, and used according to directions and the fourth day the colt ceased to be lame, and the lameness had disappeared. I used but one bottle and the colts limbs are as free from lumps and as smooth as any horse in the state. He is entirely cured. The cure was so remarkable that I let two of my neighbors have the remaining two bottles who are now using it. Very Respectfully,
L. T. FOSTER.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.
ON HUMAN FLESH.

Patton's Mills, N. Y., Feb. 21st, 1878.
B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—The parietal case which I used your Kendall's Spavin Cure was a malignant ankle sprain of sixteen months standing. I had many things but in vain. Your spavin cure put the foot to the ground again, and for the first time since hurt in that position. For a family liniment it excels anything we ever used.

Yours truly,
Rev. M. P. Bell,
Pastor of M. E. Church, Patton's Mills, N. Y.
